

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXIII.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 22, 1895.

NO. 76

OF A LOCAL NATURE.

—E. A. White sent to M. F. Elkin a bunch of hellebore at 2c.
—The Advocate has information of the death of Mrs. Kate Stone, wife of Jno. T. Stone, formerly of Lincoln county, Ky.
—The Standard Oil Company is taking options on a large acreage of oil lands near Pineville. Several wells have been sunk and oil in abundance has been found.
—As the Southbound freight train from Corbin was passing Wansota the rails spread and four cars loaded with corn were wrecked. Traffic of all kinds was delayed 12 hours.
—At Richmond, a fire occurred in which Bart Million lost Foxhound, a rare gelding, which he valued at $1,000. Other loss was about $4,000 worth of tobacco that had been stored.
—A syndicate has purchased the Middleboro Herald and will make it a democratic paper, the first of its kind in Bell county. Maj. D. E. McElwain will be editor and will advocate sound money.
—Walker Ballard and Gene Shanks, were tried in the police court at Richmond and fined for interrupting Prof. C. C. Cline, the A. P. A. lecturer, who addressed the people there Saturday night. They called him a liar.
—The county clerk of Boyle refused liquor license to Messrs. A. Tribble and G. D. McCullough at Junction City and they entered a petition for an election, which Judge Prewitt will grant if such action is legal, says the Advocate.
—It is understood at Frankfort that the successor to A. J. H. Smith, A. J. Gross has been settled upon by Governor-elect Bradley. The lucky man is Col. Dan Collier, who is said to be a distant relative of Col. Bradley. The place pays $2,000 a year. This is the second or third office the governor-elect has been named for and it is hoped that he will get at least one.

STANFORD, Nov. 20.—Please allow me through your valuable journal to offer my grateful acknowledgments to the ladies and gentlemen who so faithfully attended me night and day during my recent illness. They were indeed true messengers of love and sympathy, with out their timely aid I surely would have crossed the cold and silent stream.
The doctor, Heaven bless them for their continuous and unflinching devotion, I can never repay them, but pray that they may be spared to wipe out the stain of usefulness and then be received into the realms of bliss where they are joys forevermore. G. W. BROSAUGH.

WILLIAMSBURG, WHITLEY COUNTY.

—Mr. Taylor, of the firm of Taylor & Crute, is here looking after his lumber interests.
—Col. Thomas O'Mara is preparing to build a fine brick store in the lot adjoining the bank.
—Miss Nell Freeman is at home after being in Louisville under medical treatment, much improved.
—The buzzard attack us in earnest Tuesday night, freezing the ground and covering it with snow.
—Prof. J. C. Lewis, of Bowling Green, will be here next Tuesday and Wednesday to conduct a Sunday-School Teachers' Institute.
—Judge J. W. Akorn was here on legal business this week. Mr. G. M. Hiett, composer on the Times, was called to Evansville, Ind., last Tuesday night by the serious illness of his brother.
—The Williamsburg Institute football team played its first game at Somerset Saturday with the team of that place, defeating them by a score of 36 to 10. The Somerset boys will be here to play Saturday.
—Our county comes forward with several applicants for places under the new State administration. The boys think they should have a considerable share of the spoils living in the banner republican county of the State.
—The meeting conducted at the M. E. church by Rev. Miller and Bullock continues with much interest and there has been several additions to the church. Elder J. E. Terry, of Winchester, is expected to be here Sunday to begin a meeting at the Christian church.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—Dr. Joseph Ballou left yesterday for Columbia to hold a meeting.
—Ex-Sheriff Joe Forrest and wife, of Grant's Lick, have just been sent to an asylum. Both of them went crazy from religious excitement.
—Rev. R. H. Noel will preach at the Baptist church Sunday morning in the absence of Rev. A. V. Selmore, who is holding a protracted meeting at Union church, in Garrard.
—The Glasgow Times says that the Columbia Avenue Christian church of that city was so well pleased with the two fine sermons that Eld. Graham Frank preached for it Sunday that he will probably be called to the pastorate. The congregation of the Pleasant Grove church last Sunday called Rev. Jas. L. Allen to the pastorate for another year. The action was unanimous and expressed the love and admiration of the members for a pastor who has served them so faithfully and so well. Mr. Allen accepted the call.—Advocate.

SAULTY.—Rev. S. Neal from Wilmore preached here Sunday and Sunday night. Miss Cora Kirkpatrick has returned from a lengthy visit to New Haven, Ky. Mrs. Jennie Baslin and daughter, Kate, from Pittsburg, have been visiting Mrs. K. Napier. G. W. Martin is busy delivering fruit trees. Wm. Dawkins has been quite sick, but is better at this writing.

LANCASTER, CARRARD COUNTY.

—"The gloom of winter has settled down on everything."
—Rev. F. M. Hill preached on sanctification at the Presbyterian church on Monday evening.
—A marriage license was granted Tuesday to Alvin Thomas to wed Miss Susie Croucher, of Carterville.
—Charles W. Frisbie has in his possession a piece of money made in the year 1366 and bearing the face of Queen Elizabeth of England.
—Rev. Fisher, of Mayfield, will fill the pulpit at the Christian church on Sunday in the absence of the pastor, Elder George Goscoe.
—Mr. Ike Myers has rented the farm of Mr. John K. West and will move to it the beginning of the new year. Mr. West and family will move into town.
—Miss Evans, of Louisville, is here trying to organize a Missionary Society among the children of the Christian church. Miss Evans is a State organizer in this worthy cause.
—Mr. George Farris and family will move into town next week and occupy the S. Ormes house on Danville street. A mountain man, Mr. Smith, will rent the Farris house and farm, a few miles from town.
—The teacher's county association does not meet to-morrow as we first reported but Saturday week. As all of the teachers in the county are expected to be present and an interesting program will be arranged of both a musical and instructive nature, visitors are invited.
—Thirty names have been listed as subscribers to the circulating library that has been established in our midst. As only 25 were necessary for a library we are now certain of having one. The books will be kept in the millinery store of Miss Sallie D. Tiller.
—Yes, Mr. Wallin, we certainly have the county house and it is likely to be with us for some time to come, as it is pronounced one of the handsomest in the State, and far surpassing that of any of our sister cities, particularly one in a certain town about nine miles distant from us.

As the telegraph wires will not be in operation and longer at the depot new wires have been erected here that will connect Richmond and other points. The accommodating and polite young operator, Mr. Clay Hamilton, will have charge of the wires at Haselden & Bro.'s hardware store.

There is a strong probability that Rev. Mr. Landor and family will move into community and become residents. The two sermons he preached here Sunday were much complimented, and as the Presbyterian congregation is now without a pastor, Mr. Landor's services will most likely be secured.
—Nann's trial for killing Best came up Tuesday morning and will consume most of the week before it is completed. It took a venire of 50 men from Boyle and Lincoln before the jury could be made up. The following six, from Boyle, Churchill Yeager, Mack Hughes, R. E. Hamilton, El. Fleg, S. Durham and Thomas P. Curry, and three from Lincoln, G. T. Aschick, Taylor House, B. K. Wearin, and the three from Garrard, L. E. Brown, George Naylor, and J. T. Christopher compose the jury. It seems to be the impression that Nann will be sent to the penitentiary.
—Coroner G. S. Greenleaf and Dr. H. M. Grant held an inquest upon the remains of James C. Hamber, who was found dead in his bed on Wednesday morning, 3 miles from town. Everything indicated his death was a natural one and not from any violence. He was of unclouded mind and had been for some four or five years, having escaped from the asylum at Lexington some four months ago, and has been confined to his room in his house ever since. His burial occurred on Thursday at Crab Orchard, his old home. The deceased leaves a widow and five children, two sons and three daughters.

—The following persons compose the grand jury in the present term of court Geo. T. Farris, foreman, David Rose, Thomas Stone, Lafayette Brown, W. N. Grow, T. E. Adams, Jack Bourne, Leander Davidson, J. N. Toasters, Fred Stone, T. D. Kemper, and W. N. Carter. The petit jury is composed of the following men: J. T. Christopher, H. C. Arnold, El. Price, Robert Gully, Allen Teaters, Sampson Archer, Alex. Gibbs, O. B. Engleman, Albert Hardin, Ollie Terrill, Bright Herring, Joe Bryant, S. W. Poore, Luke Montgomery, Joe Burnside, Geo. Naylor, W. B. Moss, George Grow, L. E. Brown, R. R. Denton, Samuel Bruce, A. K. Walker, William Wallace and James S. Walker.

—Miss Grace Kinnaird has returned from a visit to friends in Hustonville. Mrs. W. G. Danlap, of Lexington, is here visiting her mother, Mrs. Addie Landram. Miss Kate Burdett left Monday to visit friends in Covington. Mrs. Root and Miss Evans, of Louisville, were guests this week of Mrs. R. H. Bateson. Mrs. Robert Young, of Louisville, is the guest of her father, Dr. Wm. Hoffman. Mrs. A. G. Scott left this week for a visit to her sister in Lexington. Engineer Rice and Conductor Price, of Covington, were guests Wednesday of their friend, George R. Hardin. Miss Eleanor Bacon, of Lexington, is being entertained by Miss Ellen Owsley. Gov.-elect Bradley returned Wednesday morning from the Atlanta Exposition, where he made a most excellent address on Kentucky day. Henry Cartright is rejoining at the Southern Exposition. Miss Ethel Grant, of Danville, is visiting her cousin, Master Joe Price. Mr. Jesse Arnold and sister, Miss Keith, attended the burial of Mr. Hamber, in Crab Orchard, on Thursday. Miss Carrie Curry has returned from a lengthy visit to her sister, Mrs. F. D. Gamble, in Danville. Miss Houghton, of Knoxville, has been the pleasant guest of the Messrs. Pilet. Elder C. C. Cline, of Cincinnati, who is becoming in the interest of the A. P. A.'s, was in Lancaster Tuesday on his way from Richmond, where he received such a rebuff in one of his lectures.

MT. VERNON, ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

—The Ladies Aid Society met with Mrs. W. J. Sparks this week.
—Mt. Vernon Institute celebrated another day with interesting exercises.
—Madam Kenners says that there will be a wedding in high life in the near future.
—Baltimore Wednesday inaugurated the first republican mayor it has had for 30 years.
—The attendance of pupils continues good, many new names will be enrolled after the holidays.
—Oil prospectors are still leading land in this county. In a very short time two oil wells will be sunk by representatives of the Standard Oil Co.
—Mr. Chas. Simpson has completed his new residence. Mr. Will Arnold is building a residence and Mr. J. M. Jones will soon begin the erection of a brick store on Main street. Thus our town continues to improve.
—The Sunday school session will be held here the 22nd and 23rd by Mr. J. C. Lewis. A large attendance is expected. Parties on program are Messrs. W. J. Sparks, J. E. Watson, R. G. Williams and J. C. Lewis. Mr. H. W. Rice, of Lexington, is county president.
—Mr. James Maret after a continued service of nearly 19 years has severed his connection with the L. & N. at this point. No agent in the employ of the L. & N. or any other road can possibly have as many friends as Mr. Maret and prosperity will attend him in whatever direction he sees fit to employ his talents.

—The Salamagundi Club held its third monthly meeting at the residence of Mr. M. C. Williams. The exercises were varied and interesting. Members on duty were Mrs. J. W. Nesbitt, Miss Helen Ritchie, Mrs. Cleo Brown, Miss Mattie Williams, Dr. E. J. Brown, Messrs. R. G. Williams and S. M. Lewis. A delightful lunch served after adjournment did full credit to the culinary skill of the hostesses.
—Although this county gave a remarkable republican majority, yet the county seat is still democratic—in her hotels, as all are run by sterling democrats, Jas. L. Joplin, the pioneer in this business, having begun about 30 years ago, keeps a table so excellent that its reputation is national, as Gov.-elect Bradley can testify. Messrs. M. F. Brinkley and Hugh Miller have taken charge of the other two hotels within the past few months and the traveling public will be well taken care of when it reaches this city.

—The alarm of fire was sounded upon the frosty air last Sunday morning about 3:30 o'clock when the residence of Mr. Willis Adams was found to be wrapped in flames. Very little was saved from the burning building, the family barely escaping with their lives. Miss Ida Marx, aged of seven years, a heroine, carrying her three-year-old sister wrapped in a quilt almost half a mile along the R. R. track, continually crying fire to arouse aid for her mother, her father being absent from home. The first parties who answered the alarm met her and relieved her of her burden, which she had cared for so tenderly regardless of her aching, bare feet and unkindled form. The citizens have shown great sympathy for Mr. Adams and family in their misfortune.

—The L. & N. has transported 14 press associations to the Atlanta Exposition so far.
—Mrs. Richard King is one of the wealthiest women in Texas. Her landed estate includes about 200 square miles and a Congress district. She employs an army of men to work on her property.
—Dr. Thomas Flournoy, a principal in the famous bowie knife duel with Edgar Garth, at the University of Virginia in 1854, died at Richmond, Va., from the effects of wounds received in that encounter. Both were wounded in the affair.

—The accident caused by the explosion of a boiler at Stamper's sawmill, on Grassy creek, was much worse than first reports indicated. Two were killed outright, and out of 12 others injured a half-dozen may die.
—The statement of the accounts of Bamberger, Bloom & Co has been completed. The assets are appraised at $858,988.95. The total liabilities are $1,215,403, of which $715,977.72 is to Eastern creditors. Of the assets $136,966.55 has been pledged to secure liabilities, leaving $722,022.22 assets available to meet general liabilities of $1,078,436.15. The firm wishes to resume.

The two most critical times in a woman's life are the times which make the girl a woman and the woman a mother. At these times, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is of incalculable value. It strengthens and invigorates the organs, distinctly feminizes, promotes regularity of the functions, alleviates irritation, checks unnatural, exhausting drains, and puts the whole female organism into perfect condition. Almost all the ills of women are traceable to some form of what is known as "female complaint." There are not three cases in 100 of woman's peculiar diseases that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will not cure.

WILLIAM MILLER LACKEY.

Next Monday at his pleasant home on Logan Avenue in Stanford, Mr. William Miller Lackey will do what seldom falls to the lot of man—celebrate his 80th birthday. He has taken life easy and grown old so gracefully that no one who does not know his age would ever imagine he is four score. His mind is clear, his step is firm and his general appearance is that of a man 15 or 20 years his junior.

Mr. Lackey was born Nov. 25th, 1815, in Madison county, Ky. His parents were Samuel Lackey and Jennie Miller and of the children born to them three brothers and two sisters survive. His grand-parents on both sides emigrated from Virginia at an early day and were among the early pioneers, who helped clear the way for the building up of the great Commonwealth of Kentucky. The educational advantages of that section, when Mr. Lackey was a youth, were confined to the Old Field Schools, which only taught the lower branches of mathematics, geography, reading and writing, but he made the most of them, and at an early age left the paternal roof and struck out for himself. He first entered the mercantile business by taking a position with a leading merchant of Richmond and sold goods for several years.

He learned much by experience and before he was 21 decided to set up for himself in business. He also decided to take a partner to share his fortunes, which partnership has not been dissolved to this good day and to which he contributes more of his success in life than to any other cause. This partnership was entered into on the 8th of December, 1837, when he was united in marriage to Miss Martha Ann Hocker, a daughter of Col. Nicholas Hocker, of Madison, a prominent farmer and stock raiser of that day, who induced him to give up merchandising and return to the farm, which business he has followed continuously since.

If ever marriage was made in heaven, this was. Their lives have been one continued honeymoon and to this day Mr. and Mrs. Lackey are as considerate of each other and as attentive as lovers. Two children blessed their union, both of whom lived to manhood. Mr. N. D. Lackey died Nov. 16, 1885, but the other, Mr. Samuel E. Lackey survives, and is one of the wealthiest and most useful citizens of Summer county, Tenn.

In politics, Mr. Lackey, who was a great admirer of Henry Clay, was originally an old Line Whig and a Union man, but seeing that the war was inevitable with all its terrible consequences, his sympathies were naturally with his people and he espoused their cause with ardor. After the war he cast his lot with the democratic party and to it has since given his warmest support.

In religious faith, Mr. Lackey is a Presbyterian and a zealous advocate for what he believes to be right, though not a stickler from the letter of the law. He is exceedingly liberal towards all other denominations whose cardinal principles are like his and whose spiritual aims and purposes are the same, consequently he attends the other churches in town when opportunity offers and joins heartily in their services.

Mr. Lackey's pluck and activity can not be better shown than by telling that he has just gotten back from Cincinnati, where he went with a car load of cattle, taking pot luck on a freight train, none the worse from the trip. Men half his age look on such a trip with aversion, but he doesn't mind it at all. Hospitable and kind hearted, he is fond of company and his house has for years been the town home of his nephews and nieces, who think there is nobody like "Uncle Will" and "Aunt Martha," whose lives have been so beautifully blended. Well does Mr. Lackey attribute his success in life principally to his wife, who has been one in every sense of the word. She is indeed an excellent woman, the worthy wife of a worthy man. May they still live long together to enjoy each other's confidence and love and demonstrate that —Some of the democratic employees in the departments at Washington have been making a canvass of the office-holders at the capital and find that four-fifths of the best places are in the possession of the republicans. This is a shame if true.

That marriage, rightly understood, Gives to the tender and the good, A Paradise below.

W. P. WALTON.

If Col. Bradley has the spirit of appreciation and the heart of gratitude with which we have always credited him, he can't do too much to repay Walter Forrester's servile support and tireless determination to leave nothing undone or unprinted to show that the Governor-elect is the greatest man of the hour. Mr. Forrester accompanied the colonel to Atlanta and if a word or look from his chief escaped him it was while he was asleep. Everything he did even to the alleged holding of a prayer meeting on his train Sunday, while returning from the show, was chronicled and dilated upon to the fullest extent. The prayer meeting story went on in this section, however, unless we have another instance of the of the proof of the assertion that while the lamp holds out to burn the vilest sinner may return. Capt. William Herndon, who ought to know whereof he affirms, said in a speech at Lancaster once that if the colonel were to walk down the aisle of any church in town he would be arrested for disturbing religious worship.

Some of those who do not know the reason are claiming that Hardin did not defeat the ticket, because he ran so far ahead of the rest of it. We believe that he contributed more than any other of the numerous causes which led to the election of Col. Bradley. The fact that he ran ahead of the ticket was simply because his name was at the head. In this county he ran about 75 ahead, but the election officers explain it in this way: Many good democrats who wanted to emphasize the fact that they were for the ticket, stamped under the rooster and in the square opposite Hardin's name. These ballots should have been counted for the whole ticket, but the officers thought otherwise and only gave Hardin credit by them. We suppose this was the case everywhere. Certainly Hardin was not more popular in this hard money county than Tyler, who was with us and the platform on that issue, and who made a speech here which everybody complimented, who heard it.

Miss CLARA CAMPBELL is dead. "Well who was she and what if she is?" our readers may enquire. Don't you remember the sweet little "Bunny" and "Baby Bunting," who figured so extensively in a breach of promise suit several years ago against Millionaire Arbuckle, the coffee dealer? She sued for $100,000, but the unsympathetic jury only gave her $10,000 to save her broken heart. It was in the trial of this suit that letters and other proofs were brought out to show how intensely affectionate the old man was and for months afterwards his favorite names for her were household words. We do not know that she ever got the money, but it is to be hoped she did, though it does not appear that any other man was attracted by it and her other charms to seek her hand in marriage. Poor girl, she escaped thereby a great deal of trouble, trials and tribulations, and let us hope that she has gone to the place where there is neither marriage nor given in marriage and where few if any men will ever enter.

There is some talk of contest for the office of superintendent of public instruction. Davidson did not resign the office of superintendent of schools in Pulaski according to the requirements of the law. We are opposed to contests, especially on technical grounds. When a man or a party gets beaten as badly as the democrats were in the last election, and as fairly, the best thing to do is to make a virtue of a necessity and swallow the medicine like a little man.

Mr. Cramer may not even get the complimentary vote of the democrats in the next House for speaker, at least of the sound money ones, as they do not wish to do anything that may be construed into an endorsement of his wild silver views. It is to be hoped that this is true and that they will stick to it. Mr. Cramer deserves to take his place with our Joe on the shelf.

The Louisville Times is after its rural contemporaries for playing the roll of doubting Thomases as to Tony Carroll's re-election and says it is not in the cards to beat. We hope this is true, but somehow or other we have lost confidence in the Times as a prophet. As a prognosticator and prophet that paper has fallen into innocuous desuetude.

It was reserved for a paper away down in Tennessee to suggest Judge T. Z. Morrow for U. S. Senator, when it seems that all of us should have thought of the genial and learned judge the first men. Let the republicans unite on him and many of their sins of omission and commission will be blotted out of the book of remembrance.

J. W. HARRIS, poet laureate of the Louisville Post, is writing some mighty pretty lines for that paper, in addition to getting up a rattling good State column. Marriage has certainly not dulled the imagination of this rising poet at any rate.

The glad tidings comes from Frankfort that Gov. Brown and Clerk Newhall have amicably settled their differences and that white wing peace hovers over capital square. The differences grew out of the small matter that the clerk charged the governor with voting the republican ticket and the governor's counter charge that the clerk was a liar. The clerk may have lied, but it still stands out in bold relief that the governor didn't turn a hand to help elect the democratic ticket.

The fight is on in Louisville. The democrats have renominated Hon. A. J. Carroll and the republicans C. A. Blatz for the Legislature. A great deal depends on the result and both sides will fight with desperation. Strange to say that although it is in Wilson's home, the radicals snore him up and thigh by nominating a man opposed to him for U. S. Senator.

HON. ROYD WINCHESTER is lecturing on the "Latin Poets" at Louisville, but if he doesn't make himself clearer than he did in his letter repudiating Hardin, no one except those entirely exempt from the peculiar woodenness or purliness of intellectual vision will comprehend what he is driving at.

THERE are said to be 5,000 and more applicants for the few offices within Gov. Bradley's gift and he finds truly that money lies a head that will wear a crown. All his kinsfolk are said to want something and as their name is legion, he'll have a merry time fixing up things to suit them all.

THE Blackburn organs hoot at the idea that he will run for Congress in the Ashland district as his Senatorial aspirations have gone glimmering. His ambition is not on the sliding scale, they say, but it begins to look as if it will soon be anything Lord for poor old Joe.

SENATOR MORRILL, of Vermont, has been connected with the Houses of Congress since 1855, and his years date back to 1810. This is a long time to be in the public service and have no measure of public importance connected with his name.

Gov. ALTGELD, the anarchist governor of Illinois, has announced that he is out of politics. So glad, and now if he will kindly get in jail and pull the door to after him, the evils he has done may be forgotten, if they never can be forgiven.

THE Nicholasville Democrat names Gen. Hardin as the strongest candidate for Congress in the Eighth district. If he is the strongest God help the weakest. But why not let the dead reequit in pace?

THE official republican majority in Ohio is 92,622. Campbell won't be the democratic candidate for president next year nor s'mother year. A great many booms got frosted on the fateful fifth.

—Frank Smith, a member of an Indianapolis suicide club, whose time had come, according to the club rules, drank a mixture of morphine and beer, but has been saved for future follies.

—Columbus Phelps, who was to have been hanged at Bowling Green Friday, will go to prison instead of the gallows for the murder of his half brother, the governor having commuted his sentence.

—Hon. Larkin J. Procter died Tuesday in Edmonson county, aged 74. He was the youngest member of the constitutional convention of 1848 and probably the last surviving member of that body.

—William A. Shoemaker, one of H. H. Holmes' counsel, has been held under $1,000 bail charged with having paid a witness $20 to swear that Benjamin F. Pictzel, whom Holmes was accused of having murdered, committed suicide.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—Miss Hattie Turner, of Middlesboro, eloped to Tennessee with Huston Ball, a brother of her stepfather.

—"They say" there will be a marriage at the Presbyterian church Thanksgiving. Who are the principals.

—Rutherford Morgan and Miss Sallie Byrd, each 20 years of age, were married at Mrs. A. Reynolds', near Wayneburg, Tuesday.

—On account of unrequited love, James Vittitoe committed suicide at Attertonville, by shooting himself through the heart.

—Mansfield Hanks, 70, and Mrs. Mary Gatlin, 68, were married last week in Hopkins county. Both had been married three times before.

—James Ricketts, of Mt. Vernon, and Miss Sallie Boone, of Maywood, were married at Eld. J. G. Livingston's Wednesday by that gentleman.

—Rev. S. M. Logan attended the marriage of his brother, Mr. J. V. Logan, Jr., to Miss Jennie Taylor, which occurred at Richmond Wednesday.

—Thomas Cecil, of Wolfe county, and Miss Helen Oaks, of Rowland, drove to Eld. J. G. Livingston's yesterday and were made one after God's holy ordinance.

—Claus Cooper, hardly 14, and Miss Helen Shepherd, barely 12, were married in Russell county last week. They need a good spanking for rushing into trouble so soon.

—Miss Martha Pickett, a sister of Miss Sudie Pickett, well-known here, and Mr. Charles S. Burgess will be married at Mayaville, Nov. 28. Mr. W. A. Tribble, of this place, will attend.

—Mr. M. L. Sharp, a prosperous young Casey county farmer, and Miss Cora Hall, a handsome young lady of the West End, drove to this place yesterday and were married in the court house by Judge Davidson.

—Mr. A. B. McKinney, who went from this county to Kansas in June of last year, has obtained a divorce from his wife who was Miss Katie Carpenter and is now located at Maryville, Mo., where he orders his paper sent.

—A Boyle county man and a pretty maiden from near Maywood are to wed in a week or two if Madam Rumor is to be relied on. There is another marriage to occur here soon, but you can't make us tell yet, who will be the contracting parties.

—Mr. Frank Dille, a well-known young engineer on the O. S. railroad, and Miss Amanda Farris, a society belle of Somerset, eloped to Liberty and were married. Mr. Dille is said to have been engaged to the young lady six years ago, but she jilted him. He then tried his hand on her sister, who was more responsive to his affections, but she died before the wedding day. Then he sought succor in travel, but his first love haunted him and returned and once more plead his suit. This time he succeeded in touching her heart and the sequel is told above.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

A horse sold at B. F. Hayden's sale for 50 cents, but come to think of it, a horse that would sell for 50 cents isn't worth more than 50 cents.

MR. P. M. McGINNESS was at Somerset this week defending Talbot Davis for killing Cole Hudson, another darkey. It was one of Gov.-elect Bradley's cases and at its first trial Davis was given 17 years in the penitentiary. He was given a new trial and this time got five years.

SOMEBODY has sent us copies of the Albert Times of Barchersdorp, Cape of Good Hope, dated August 21. The Marlborough Press, Picton, New Zealand, of Sept. 17th, and the Evening Bulletin of Honolulu, Hawaii, dated Oct. 10th, which anyone interested in those countries can have by calling.

FOR some unexplained reason the Signal Service has ceased to send this office the forecasts, so we can only tell what weather we have had instead of what we will have, unless they are resumed. Yesterday's bright sunshine soon dispelled the snow and the weather grew rapidly warmer.

RECEPTION.—We are in receipt of the following: The ladies of the Christian church will give a reception at the home of Mr. W. P. Tate on Nov. 29, from 3 to 6 and from 7 to 10, to meet their new pastor, Eld. Sharrard. Each member of the church, ministers of other churches with their families and the editor and wife are cordially invited. There will be a box in the hall to receive any contribution to the C. C. Orphan's Home that the friends of that worthy institution may be disposed to give. We hope for an unusual display of liberality as it is much needed.

A CLOSE CALL.—Yesterday Dr. William Shelton, president of the college, got on the Northbound train to seat his wife, who was going to Nashville. The train started while he was on, but he succeeded in jumping off. Feeling, doubtless that he would be jerked down when he let go the railing, he held on till the train's speed forced him to loosen his hold and then he fell apparently under the wheels. Everybody held his breath expecting to see the old gentleman ground to pieces, but fortunately he escaped with apparently only a few bruises and his clothes considerably torn. It was the closest kind of a call and the wonder is that he was not instantly killed. As the doctor is getting along in years and is quite a fleshy man, the fall will doubtless affect him seriously, although he claims that he is not much hurt. As soon as he could Capt. Matt Lowe stopped the train, but it was too late then, and after finding that the victim could walk he went on his way.

THE chrysanthemum show was a thing of beauty and proved as profitable to the cause as it was pleasant to the visitors. The arrangement was most artistic, Mrs. Pamela Brown's practiced hand having been ably assisted by Mrs. Wm. Geer and Mrs. Mary Craig. Deckelmann's Orchestra furnished the instrumental and Miss Mary Cowen and Mrs. A. G. Huffman the vocal music. Miss Cowen, who is one of the most obliging as she is the sweetest of singers, favored the visitors with several solos, which were loudly applauded. Mrs. Huffman's contributions to the pleasure of the evening were also greatly enjoyed and her admirers showed their appreciation by presenting to her one of the finest plants in the display. A lover's corner was arranged and it never lacked for occupants. On the screen in letters of evergreen were the words "Chrysanthemum—Mum's the Word," which were peculiarly appropriate and suggestive. The proceeds, which the pretty little door-keepers, Misses Nannie Vandover and Dollie McRoberts, tell us amounted to $34, for the benefit of the Joseph Price Hospital, which Drs. Carpenter and Peyton have established here and which is proving such a God-send to suffering humanity.

B. K. WEAREN.

W. L. WITHERS, Salesman.

End, have bought up to date about 50 sloop cattle. They paid from 2½ to 3½c.

—Horses were probably never cheaper now. Good, sound combined horses were slow sellers at $25 to $35 at Danville Monday.

—G. & C. P. Cecil sold to A. E. Stackney, of San Antonio, Texas, Miss Cecil, 2,214, and Chastine, 2,294, for $2,500.—Advocate.

—At B. F. Hayden's sale Wednesday heifers brought from $14 to $17, milk cows $18 to $36, fat hogs 2.90 to 3½ and horses 50c to $35.

—The Lexington races are not drawing well. Running in the snow and standing in the frigid blasts of wind are not captivating amusements.

—It is claimed that Richard Croker paid Milt Young $20,000 for My Favorite, the dam of the (sensational) Hand-apping. She is foal to Hanover.

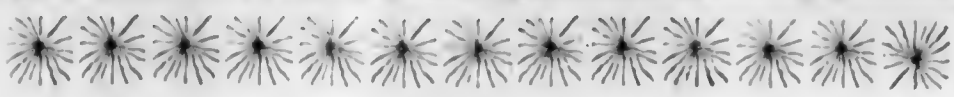

—S. H. Shanks bought of John Peoples a mule colt for $15 and two of John O. Tucker at $17.50.

—Capt. T. A. Elkin, of Garrard, has bought a number of cotton mules in the last few days at $33 to $55.

—Cattle are a little off this week. Hogs are bringing about 3½ cts, and $1.50 per barrel delivered, seems to be the staple price for corn.—Winchester Democrat.

—S. Weihi has bought from G. T. Fox, of Montgomery county, 60 1,550-lb. cat-at 4 cents, and from W. H. Reed, of same county, 50 feeders, same weight at 3½.

—Corn is selling at $1 to $1.25 per barrel delivered. Henry Halley sold at Lexington court day a lot of sugar mules to go South at $80. There were 100 cattle on the market Monday and they sold at 2½ to 3.35. Mule colts sold at $10 to $20.—Georgetown Times.

Good News.—Dr. Bender, the painless dentist, will be here all next week with office at the Myers House. See him early and avoid the rush.

ALL persons who desire to have Dr. Bender make plates for them will please call at the hotel on Monday, Nov. 25th, to have their impression taken.

SHELBY & SHELBY have sold to J. R. Rount their stock of livery at McKinney. During the few months they ran the stable there they made about $500 clear.

EAGLE.—Mr. Forestus Reid shot an eagle the other day, which measures six feet from tip to tip. It is only slightly wounded in the wing and is already getting used to his surroundings.

UNDECIDED.—Representative-elect B. B. King, in answer to a letter of inquiry from the Cincinnati Enquirer, says that he has not decided who he will vote for for U. S. Senator, but will wait further developments.

TWO GOOD THINGS.—We have just put on sale 50 dozen ladies pants and vests, one lot 50c suit, one at 75c suit. These goods were made to sell at 75 and $1. But we closed out the line consequently these low prices. Severance & Son.

THE ladies of the Chrysanthemum show extend their heartfelt thanks to all who assisted them in making the entertainment a success, and especially do we thank the musicians, the Odd Fellows and others.

A good picture of Col. W. O. Bradley appears in the current Harper's Weekly, but no picture has ever appeared which does the handsome governor-elect so much justice as the one we have. He says it is the best likeness of him he has seen and he ought to know.

OCTOGENARIANS.—We begin with this issue to publish pictures and sketches of people in this county who have reached four-score years in the journey of life. Mr. W. M. Lackey appears in this issue to be followed by Squire J. S. Murphy, Col. John Buchanan and others.

THE Louisville Post and other papers announce that Mrs. Letcher Owsley, a Lancaster confectioner, has assigned. There is no Mrs. Letcher Owsley, unless the popular young Lancastrian has kept it a mighty secret. The item grew doubtless out of the fact that Mrs. E. A. Pascoe assigned to Mr. Owsley for the benefit of her creditors with assets of about $600 and liabilities of $500.

THE Amateur Dramatic Club of Mt. Xenia covered itself all over with glory Tuesday night in the rendition of "Among the Breakers" and "One Night in a Bar Room." The house was crowded and all were delighted. The Cook Brothers, of Danville, distinguished themselves, while Misses Pearl White, Margaret Lewis, Adele Feland and M. B. Myers proved themselves star actors of great magnitude. The entertainment was under the direction of Miss Georgia Lewis, which accounts largely for its excellence.

ELD. C. O. CHINE had a stormy experience at Richmond, where he is prosecuting his labors for the A. P. A., while pretending as he did here that he was in the service of the Lord. At his lecture for men only, he made his usual charges against the Catholics and was several times called down. Finally Eugene Shanks, who though not a Catholic leans to that church, denounced him as a liar and Cline called on the police for protection, who succeeded in restoring order. The reverend gentleman deserves some jostling, for giving up his holy calling to enter into such business as he is engaged in. It would be much better for him to devote his talents to the saving of souls.

DRY GOODS.

Danville, Kentucky.

We have never before succeeded so well in getting just the goods the trade wanted than we have this season. Our dress goods have been just right in colors and fabrics and prices. In cloaks we have been running on the new Jackets and every day adds to their popularity. All through our many departments the same. It is all the result of careful study of the styles before hand, and of buying direct from the manufacturers. We have built up our trade by pleasing customers. Right now

OUR CLOAK SEASON

Is at its height. We are sending out from 10 to 15 garments a day. Up to this time we have been continually receiving new cloaks. Now we will stop reordering. Come and see our immense variety of new Box Coats. Everyone new this season and most of them only in a few weeks. Prices from $5 to $25. More at $9 to $15 than other prices. As there are at least 50 styles we can't describe them, but we will positively sell you any one for less than any store in Kentucky. Cloth capes from $2 up to $19. Misses' and children's Jackets from $1.75 to $10.

IF

You want a handsome black dress, something new in Boucle, Crepon or a Mohair fancy, something you don't see in every little store, come and see us. We have exclusive patterns that are not only the correct things now, but will be absolutely sure to be the craze next season. The prices of these goods are $1 to $2.25. All kinds of staple black goods at money-saving prices.

LADIES' UNDERWEAR.

The best 25c vests and pants in Kentucky. They were made to sell at 50c, but on account of slight defects in weave we can sell at 25c. They are full size, fine yarns and fleeced. Popular "Oneita" union suits at 85c, $1 and $1.50. "Florence" union suits 50c. Children's all-wool underwear that will not shrink. Same in ladies' vests, pants and union suits. We can save you enough on underwear alone to pay you for coming to Danville.

KID GLOVES

From $1 to $2. All with the "Cluze patent thumb." We fit them on, and you know you have good fitting gloves before you pay for them. If they burst we lose it. So we keep only the best.

"PEERLESS" HOSIERY

None better. Every grade you can ask for. Our 25c hose have double heels, sole and toe. At 3 pairs for $1 we offer extra fine, or extra heavy "Peerless" hose with double soles, heel and toe. Woolen hose extra values at 25c and 35c. Fine French cashmere hose at 50c. Children's hose in every grade from 10c to 50c.

Eiderdown Flannels, all-wool at 25c a yard. New wrapper goods at 10c, 12½c and 15c. Outing cloths in 25 new designs at 10c. Special values in Handkerchiefs at 5c, 10c, 15c and 25c.
